The Stomach Cannot be Freighted. With greater trash than a violent drastic purgative. True, such a medicine relieves constipation for the time, but at the expense of great injury to the intestinal canal, which it both inflemes and weakens, thus unfitting it for the performance of its proper functions. Widely different is the action of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters a tonic aperient which produces effects preinpt, indeed, but never violent and convul-The purity of its botanic ingredients, its unobjectionable flavor, its gental influence upon the mind, and the thoroughness of its remedial action in cases of constipation, liver complaint and dyspepsia, combine to render it a most desirable family specific. It increases both physical vigor and substance, tranquilizes and invigorates the nervous system, and gives an unwonted relish for the food. A wineglass three times daily is about the average dose.

FRIDAY.....JUNE 20, 1879.

0. 0. POWNING, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR THE PERCENTAGE SYS-TFM.

The Carson Appeal endeavors to make a point on the method suggested by it of reducing railroads fares and frieghts by saying "a reduction of—per cent shall be made." Such a law had to be general, and the same rate would not have been fair, in proportion, to every tion to reach the V. & T. might have been placed at 30 per cent; whereas 15 would have been enough for the E. & P. or 20 for the C. P. Without any date it was a hard matter to get at, and none knew it better than Harry Mighels himself. But the idea was excellent and the Legislature baving compelled the companies to hereafter make annual ever faithful to my duty; but if any of reports it may be possible from the showing made, to arrive at a rate that showing made, to arrive at a rate that will be exactly right.

of schedules call for, enable practical legislation at the next session, if in the meantime the companies do not reduce the rates to figures satisfactory to the public. If the precentage system is not found practicable, the schedule of each road can be taken, and such a re-In addition, the law to be general, and having reports to guide, the Legislature can classify the roads according to their monthly or yearly receipts, and the matter then be properly adjusted. Such are the ideas gained by us from the light on the subject, and at the next session we are willing to be blamed if we do not carry them out. There can not be too much discussion of this railroad fare and freight question, either concerning the Central Pacific or the State roads. The people should be given both sides of the question. Their decision will meet with our approbation by reviewing our vote.

NEW WAY TO BEAT THE LAW.

It has generally proven to be the all laws passed against them. A late instance has come to our knowledge wherein the Central Pacific have dis played their usual shrewdness. Not long ago the California Legis'ature passed a law prohibiting the giving of passes to any but employes. This gave the Co. a good excuse to "shut down" on the free army. Ever since then the C. P. officers, having friends, give a little "tape worm" ticket to them. Thus when Dennis Mc-Carthy wants to go below Steve Gage gives him a "taje worm." and the trip is made to and fro in perfect

DISTRUSTFUL OF THUR-IVI A N.

Ohio Democrats now in Washington accuse Thurman of disloyalty to the Democratic State ticket, and that he has already started a scheme to trade off Ewing for members of the Legislature. Thurman cares more. these men say, for his own return to the Senate than the election of Ewing, and will sell out the latter at every opportunity to strengthen his own candidacy for the Senatorship. These are the slanders a good man gets because he is a politician.

The Eureka Leader is not exactly pleased with the review of the Legislature. Nevertheless it is as good in its way as that bill Mr. Yerington gave Mr. Fisk, and which was intro duced by the latter in the Arsembly.

that Congress should adjourn, not out of respect for the dead, but for the living.

GOV. PERKINS, OF CALI-FORNÍA.

Geo. C. Perkins is the Republican nominee for Governor of California, and is certain to be the next Governor of that great State. And he will make one of the best Executives the people have ever had. There is no better man in the State than he, and we congratulate the Republicans upon their excellent choice for the exalted station to which he has been chosen. Upon being placed in nomination Mr. Perkins appeared before the Convention and said:

Mr. President and gentlemen of this Convention: You have conferred upon ne a great and distinguished honor appear before you to endorse the platorm you have adopted and to renew my ealty to the Republican party. The party must be right on the great quesions of the day, and in the enactment of such laws as will promote the wealth and prosperity of this State. The people have just adopted a fundamental law which is said to be somewhat of an experiment in the State Government, out it is intended to furnish greater proection and safety to the masses. Republican party accepts the will of the people, and are determined to carry out ts provisions, giving it an honest and fair trial. The Executive has only one duty to perform—that is, to seek from the legislative and judicial departments a wise interpretation of the document, und then to execute it as a law. I heartily endorse this instrument as the tundamental law of the land. It is true that I am and have been engaged in the transportation business, but I am an old resident of the State. My interests are and ever will be to promote that great prosperity which is in store for it. To promote these interests I hope to be Juty, I ask him to be true to himself and this State and not give me his vote. [Cheers.] I aspire to the position for the honor, and I can only achieve that honor by faithfully executing the will of the people. The State of California, like other States in the Union, has been depressed with hard times and a constitute that of the states in the states in the Union, has been depressed with hard times and a constitute that of the states are states of the scarcity of labor for industrial classes. One of the great causes of this condition of affairs is the Chinese immigration. I believe it is the duty of the State to do all in its power to induce the Govern-ment to amend the laws relating to this immigration, and until that is done it is the duty of the State to do all in its power that this immigration should be stopped. [Cheers.]

The first ballot stood: Perkins, 215; Evans, 106; Swift, 31; Davis, 53. At the announcement of the vote there was an enthusiastic shout from the convention, and cheer after cheer rent the air from the delegates. Boisterous congratulations were indulged in by the lobbies, and calls were made for Perkins. Mr. Perkins said:

There are times in one's life when one can ill express himself. This is such a time for me. Eather of the gentlemen named would have been as good a candidate as I. They waged an honorable war, and if—as I know they will—the gentlemen who worked so nobly for the other candidates will now come over to me I am certain that the victory will be ours. [Applause.] If I am elected I shall so act that no one can murmur against me, and if I ever abuse that trust may my breath fail me. [Cheers.]

The platform adopted by the Convertion is short but expressive. The principle points are the reaffirmation of the principles of the Republican party; denounces the attempt of the Democracy case that ralread componies cade to interfere with the purity of elections; sustains the President in his veto policy; pledges a faithful and loyal application of the new Constitution; asserts that the agricultural and industrial elements are the great strength of the country; The only appearance of the celebrated world famous pledges the party to the support of pregressive education among the people; pledges the candidates to the State Legislature to the protection and fostering of all industries, and using the best endeavors to settle the differences between the agricultural and mining interests in certain portions of the State, by applying the best engineering skill and protection of all parties and their invested rights; asserts that the ownership in property should be protected, and affirms that Congress should regulate The greatest in ing artist in Comedy, who will spike in the interests of comic character impersonations. fares and freights in the interests of commerce, and pledges the Railroad Commissioners of the State to a reduction of 25 per cent. from present rates. There are also anti-Chinese planks, and | Eeats can be secured in advance at the Postoffice a declaration in favor of small holdings

> The capital stock of the Noonday and North Noonday Mining Com panies is to be increased from $6.0.0. 000 in 60,000 to $10,000,000 in 100,000 shares. The additional 80,000 shares will be put upon the market, and the proceeds will be used in the erection of a mili for the joint use of the mines. Both claims are in the Bodie district. More mills are just what that district now wants. The Noonday mine has some ore.

His candidacy pre vents a unanimous nomination of Grant, and Grant's only chance has been that the united South would force him apon the Northern delegates and secure a general ass nt But as the North is to be divided, is it cer tain that the South will be united? If the negroes had their way there is no question that the South would send a solid Grant delegation to the Republican Convention, but the negro never has had his own way. The office holders control the conventions and the office-holders will look upon Sherman as the man who, if elected, will probably keep his present appointees in office for another term. The South may therefore be regarded as no longer time taking a dose of stryohnue hersolid for the Grant boom. Mr. Sher-
